NEW TURN IN MEXICAN AFFAIRS

Administration is Facing Problem in Storm Tossed Country.

CABINET MET TODAY.

President Wilson Will be Conservative Pending Arrival of H. L. Wilson From Troubled Zone.

Washington, July 18.—Consideration of the Mexican situation is believed to be ocupying much of the time of the President's cabinet at its meeting this morning although it is believed that, pending the return to this country of Henry Lane Wilson the American Ambassador to Mexico,, and his conference with the President, the cabinet is not disposed to advise radical change of policy on the part of the administration toward the questions of recognition or intervention.

Prior to the meeting of the cabinet, Secretary Bryan, who returned this morning from his Chautauqa lecture at Mountain Lake, Park, Md., had a conference with the President regarding the Mexican situation.

The new turn in Mexican affairs, brought about by the insistence of Germany, with the aparent backing of other powers, that this country take steps toward the settlement of the troubles south of the Rio Grande, is one of the most difficult situations the administration has been called up on to face.

From whatever angle the situation is viewed, it is filled with possibilities of a grave sort.

The fact that the European powers are demanding action by this government has given small surprise to those who have been following the trend of Mexican affairs. The only question has been when the European government would take this stand. That they would eventuall ytake it, unless peace and order were restored below the border, has been generally anticipated in Washington, whether in army, Congress, or well-informed official circles.

The fact that the United States could not insist on the Monroe doctrine and escape its responsibilities and that these responsibilities in the case of a great nation like Mexico, involved in civil strife and disorder were bound to be heavy has been obvious.

Whichever way this government turns, the outlok is embarrassing. Public sentiment here does not look kindly on the recognition of the bloody government of Huerta. Yet the indications are that if this government does not recognize Huerta, the republic will be hurried into still deeper tribulations than it is in now. From many quarters among Americans in Mexico and in this counrty, demand for recognition of Huerta is strong. On the other hand, many insist that even if recognized the Huerta government is doomed to fall, and there is much to support this view.

From the standpoint of expediency, if not of morals and ethics, the chief thing this country and other nations desire is restoring of order in Mexico. But the difficulty is that no course this government can take promises such restoration of order for years to come. It canot be done by words, aparently, either by recognition or non-recognition. The United States might back track to the Monroe doctrine and tell European powers to go ahead and do what they could to bring about peace in Mexico, but this course seems out of question, if the feeling of the people is regarded.

inrnotsgv-lsh rmht mht mht mhtmh

When it comes to intervention, which is only another name for invasion, and forcible restoration of peace, the results of such a policy have deplorable prospects. Yeare of armed occupation would result if the American troops crossed the Rio Grande. Moreover, there would, in the opinion of some of the best informed military men, be much heavier fighting than generally supposed, to say nothing of months and years of guerila operations.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Louis Beauregard, 75 years old, a retired government employe, died in Georgetown University Hospital yesterday afternoon, a half hour after he had swallowed a quantity of carbolic acid and dropped unconscious in the roadway in Rosslyn, about 100 yards from the end of the Aqueduct bridge.

It is declared in Eagle Pass, Tex., on good authority that United States Consul Lutehr Ellsworth, at Piedras Negras, Mex., has reported to Washington the discovery of a plot to dynamite the American consulate, and that his life is in imminent danger. Consul Ellsworth sleeps in the army post in Eagle Pass at night. Official records of the consulate have been removed to the American side for safe keeping. Ellsworth was said to have reported to Washington that he had been reliably informed that the alleged conspiracy was hatched among constitutionalist leaders in Piedras Negras.

John Wolf, of Patterson, N. J., 77 years old, a veteran of the civil war, has received papers in a breach of promise action brought by Miss Emma Mahaney, 67 years old, of Wooster Ohio, In her petition in the hands of her attorney, Miss Maheney states she never married, and waited in hopes that her sweetheart of her youthful days would some day wed her. She asserts that she has not seen Mr. Wolf, since their separation in 1863, when the then young man went to the front. Three years ago she was surprised, she says, when she received a letter from her one-time sweetheart from Patterson Then came another promise of marriage. Miss Mahaney avers and just at the time when she was ready to go to Paterson she received word that the marriage would never take place. Miss Mahaney brings the action for $25,000.

SPEAKS IN RICHMOND.

Canidate Wedderburn is Given a Rousing Reception.

Alexander J. Wedderburn, candidate for Lieutenant-Governor returned from Ricmond today where he spoke last night before the West End Citizens' Association. According to the Richmond Virginian the patriarchal candidate of Alexandria had the floor al to himself, and he kept the crowd amused with his good natured flings at his opponents. One of his best was the production of a letter from the present lieutenant-governor asking Mr. Wedderburn's suport and vote in the coming primary, which reached the Alexandria candidate in yesterday's mail. It was one of the regular circular letters with which candidates are bombarding the voters, but the joke on Lieutenant Governor Ellyson caused a hearty laugh.

Mr. Wedderburn said that he had a high opinion of Lieutenant-Governor Ellyson, but thought he had held office long enough. He had nothing to say against Mr. Ellyson, but he had much to say against Mr. Machen. "Any man who comes here and asks for your suffrage should be able to show that he has done something for the Commonwealth," said Mr. Wedderburn. "I defy any man to shrow that Mr. Machen has ever done anything for this state. He was in the Senate and never introduced but one meritorious bill, and that failed to get through. Yet the papers praise Machen to the skies, say unkind things about Ellyson and ridicule me.

"I am not an advocate of statewide prohibition, and I am not afraid to state my position either."

SECRETARY BRYAN FURTHER EXPLAINS

Makes Statement After Delivering Lecture at Mountain Park.

$250 IS A MODEST SUM.

Certain Fixed Charges Must be Met, Which With Living Expenses Exceed His Salary.

Washington, July 17.—No operating charges, nor aditions to surplus accounts, are responsible for Secretary Bryan's desire to to add lecture fees to his salary of $12,000 a year. This the Secretary explained last night at Mountain Lake Park, Md., where, after delivering a chautauqua lecture for the modest stipend of $250, he declared that it was his "fixed charges" that made necessary the additional revenue.

"The salary of $12,000 a year," he said, "is sufficient to meet the expenses of Secretary of state when these expenses are confined to his home and official life. This, however, is not the case with me. The fact ought not to be overlooked, and it ought not to be necessary for me to mention, that in my life are certain fixed charges which must be met. These charges, with my living expenses and expenses incidental to my position, exceed my salary."

The "fixed charges" of Mr. Bryan, as explained by him,(include life insurance premiums.

"When,' he said, "a man abandons his home and takes an office, he leaves behind him at his old home expenses which he canot avoid. Every man in public life knows that I am not delivering lectures with a view to adding to my accumulations. I am working to meet my expenses I must keep intact whatever money I have accumulated for my old age and for my family. I canot expect to be a breadwinner when I am infirm."

More than 1,000 sumer residents and natives of Mountain Lake Park heard Mr. Bryan lecture on "The Making of a Man," and the admission charge ranged from 25c to $1.

DOG LICENSE BUSINESS DULL.

Falling Off in Number Compared With Last Two Years.

Prior to July 1st the Mayor issued a notice to persons owning dogs to come forward and pay the necessary license on the same. He also advised persons to attach the tag or medal to the collar or muzzle. How this provision as to dogs on the streets without tags or collars has been enforced is known to one observant person, as wel las another. Perhaps, indeed in fact, from the record, it is easily ascertained that never was there so few applications for licenses up to the middle of July. Yesterday the first person appearing at the auditor's office on the dog business was a woman who paid her license just ten days before, and the dog had died or ben destroyed. She requested the return of her money, as she was "done with dogs."

As the request was not an unreasonable one, her money was returned, as the tag and license can be used, Besides, as no licenses were being issued, it was thought the industry of "doing nothing in issuing" might be relieved by a little exercise in redemption

On July, 1911, 620 licenses had been issued. On July 18, 1912, 525. On July 18, 1913, 492.

COL. MULHALL'S TESTIMONY TODAY

Closing Days of National Campaign of 1908 are Described.

MORE REVELATIONS

Ordered to Sleep in His Clothes—"Had to Put Republican Ticket Over and We did It."

Washington, July 17.—The closing days of the National campaign of 1908 furnished the text for the testimony of "Col." M. M. Mulhall, former chief lobyist and strike breaker of the National Association of Manufacturers when the Senate lobby probe was resumed today. He related with a wealth fo detail,his movements about the country from the East to the Middle West working in the interest of Congressmen who had received the "O. K." of Van Cleave, Emery, and other high officials of the N. A. M.

"My orders were to sleep in my clothes, and I did so.," was his declaration time and again. "We had to put the Republican ticket across and we did it."

Mulhall stated that, although they early realized that Congressman Watson was doomed to defeat in Indiana, he and the officers of the N. A. M., worked practically night and day for a month trying to aid him. According to letters submitted by Mulhall, the chief cause of embarrassment to Watson was the attitude of the state Republican leaders in insisting on legislation which the liquor interests opposed.

Mulhall is beginning to show the strain og his long interrogation. His face is somewhat drawn.

CAN BANK BY MAIL.

Postal Saving Depositors Aided by Change in The System.

"Banking by Mail" is the latest innovation entered into by the government in connection with the postal savings system. Hereafter deposits may be made by mail and withdrawals likewise effected through the same agency.

When the postal saving system was first put in operation postmasters were forbidden to permit deposits by such persons as were not patrons of the post office in which they sought to bank. This was found to work a real hardship on a certain class of would-be depositors, and Postmaster General Burleson accordingly abrogated the rule.

Postmaster Egborn of Alexandria is expected to be officially notified tomorrow to place this addition to the postal saving department in operation.

BATTLE OF BLACKBURN'S FORD.

Fifty-Second Anniversary of Alexandrians' Baptism of Fire.

On the 18th of July 1861, the Alexandira boys had their "Baptism of Fire," at Blackburn's Ford, Va. It was a hot nad unusually long, long day, beginning at sunshine and ending about sunset. A portion of the Seventeenth Virginia Regiment Infantry crossed Bull Run and checked the charge of the federals on their position. Several Alexandrians were killed and wounded, but they checked the advance. This was about the beginning of the war and the first hand-to-hand tustle was engaged in and probably only one of the sort. Private Warfied, tackled a Yankee and the y had an old fashioned wrestle. Private Warfield brought back to his lines the first prisoner of war—both of the fellows looked tired and dusty and looked like a canteen of whisky would have been very refreshing—as water was scarce and muddy.

PRICES ARE SMASHED.

Costs Are Not Being Considered by Griffin Furniture Company.

One of the biggest cut price furniture sales ever held in Alexandria during mid summer is now being conducted by the Griffin Furniture Company at 812 King street. The original cost of the furniture is not being considered at this sale, everything in stock being placed on sale and there will be no reservations. There is no reason why the buyer cannot find here, everything in the way of fine furniture, offered at prices that will reach the low mark in sales records for this city.

The reason for such big cuts in prices at this time becomes evident when it is known that the midsummer season is when furniture men from all over the country visit the big furniture exhibition in New York, now open, and make their purchases for fall, in consequence of which, the stock at home must be reduced to make room for more goods newly purchased in the Eastern market.

THREE POWERS AGAINST BULGARIA

Greece, Servia and Roumania Against Ferdinand.

TO MOVE SPEEDILY.

Roumanian Troops Within Thirty Miles of Sofia—Situation Reported Tense Today.

London, July 18—Greece, Servia and Roumania will attempt to crush Bulgaria according to a Reuter dispatch received here today from Salonika, these three powers have agreed upon concerted operations against the forces of Czar Ferdiaand. They have decided that an armistice will not be accepted and that peace terms will be drawn only at Sofia. The latest reports declare that the Greek, Serb, and Roumanian armies, as well as the Ottoman forces, are actively closing in on the Bulgarian despite protestations from the powers.

Driven to desperation by the reports of horrible atrocities of the Bulgarians, it is now believed there will be no stopping of the Greek and Servian forces.

The Turkish troops continued their advance today and a report from Constantinople declares that before retreating from Hairebolu, the Bulgarians burned the homes of 950 Mussulmen. Suddenly these non-combatants were caught in their houses and burned to death. Others escaped with horrible burns only to die within a few hours.

Sofia, July 18.—With Roumanian troops within thirty miles of Sofia and intimations of Bulgaria's real position in the Balkan conflict beginning to reach the people, the situation here was extremely tense today,

M. Malinoff, the Democratic leader, having abandoned his efforts to form a new cabinet, a new premier Radestavoff,(the liberal leader, took charge today. He immediately formed his cabinet.

The Bulgarians are wholly unprepared to resist and attempted invasion of Sofia and should the Roumanians push on they might enter the city today or tomorrow. King Charles is with his troops and would take direct charge of any negotiations for peace.

EXCITING AQUATIC EVENT

August Calmes's Motorboat Tests Power With Three Others

During the past few days considerable interest has been manifested among owners of motorbats over a unique contest which, in accordance with schedule, came off in the river opposite this city late yesterday evening.

A bet had been made that Admiral Calmes' boat Augusta could make a line to three other boats and should the latter be headed down the river the Augusta could pull them towards Washington. The three boats, the prowess of which had been treated with contempt, aggregate 23 horse power. They belong to Leroy Beach, James Lloyd and Henry Simmons. They were ashed abreast of each other, and upon a given signal the pulling match began. The Augusta, in charge of Thomas Travers, at first seemed about to fulfill the boasts of her commander, but the smaller boats finally "spend," when the Augusta found she could not make good the expectations of Travers. After a zigzag performance, during which the owners of the four boats claimed a victory, the line connecting the Augusta with the smaller boats was cut when the tussle was brought to an abrupt termination.

DEATH OF COLORED MINISTER.

Aged John M. Dawson, Leader of His Race, Dies at Williamsburg.

Williamsburg, Va., July 18.—Rev. John M. Dawson, aged eighty-three years probably one of the most widely known colored preachers and politicians in the Eastern part of the State in his day, died Tuesday night at an early hour in his home on Francis street. Dawson was a power among the people of his race following the close of the war between the states, and continued to be prominent as a politician until the disfranchisement of the negro. But Dawson was always a friend of the white people, and it was through his influence that his people were kept in bounds here. He was always a good counselor, and for this Dawson's memory will long be kept green by those who are left to remember his services to his community.

He was elected treasurer of James City County and the city of Williamsburg, but was defeated for office in 1893. After that he devoted himself to his church work and advising his people to become useful citizens and eschew politics. He was pastor of the First Baptist Church for many years, but his congregation, tiring of him on account of his decrepitude, was forced to resign, which he did after a strenuous fight. So bitter was the feeling in his congregation, that the funeral will not be held from his former charge, but will take place from another colored church. Dawson was a master of arts, of Oberlin (Ohio) College and was a man of considerable learning.

POLICEMAN FINED $25.

Made Arrest in Richmond Without Just Cause.

Richmond, July 18.—In consequence of charges preferred against him by the crew of a Seven Pines electric car, Patrolman Eacho, of the First Police station, was fined $25 for conduct unbecoming an officer and for making an arrest without just cause Wednesday night by the Board of Police Commissioners. The officer lacked witnesses to confirm his account of abuse heaped upon him by the carmen. The conductor substantiated the evidence of the motormen an dthe motorman upheld the testimony of the conductor.

Several weeks ago Patrolman Eacho arrested a man near the Seven Pines car line for disorderly conduct. He boarded a street car with his prisoner, and while en route to the station house became engaged in a scuffle with his prisoner. To subdue him Eacho said he was forced to use his club freely. After the policeman had struck the prisoner several times, Motorman J .J. Davis protested and the officer told him to mind his own business. Hot words between the two ensued, and Eacho said he was going to the station house and issue a warrant for Davis's arrest. Eacho alleges that the conductor then joined in and cursed him roundly.

The officer returned to the station-house, swore out warrants for Davis and the conductor and arrested both. In Police Court the man Eacho had cubbed was fined for disorderly conduct, but the motorman and conductor were dismissed when Eacho could not produce any witness who had heard the abuse he alleges the car crew heaped upon him. Davis and the conductor thereupon brought charges of false arrest and conduct unbecoming an officer against Eacho.

Hampton, Va., July 18.—For the first time since the civil war a woman was buried here Wednesday afternoon with Confederate honors. The funeral was that of Mrs. Robert S. Hudgins, one of the best known women of the state in Confederate circles. The casket was of Confederate gray, draped with the battle flag and six Confederate veterans in full uniform bore the coffin to the cemetery The funeral was held from the First Baptist Church, the Daughters of the Confederacy attending in a body.

Mrs. Hudgins, who was the mother of Robert S. Hudgins, Jr., of Richmond, devoted her life to the Confederate cause. She organized the Hampton chapter, the Magruder chapter in York county; the Mary Custis Lee Chapter of Children of the Confederacy, the Bethel Monument association, the Jamestown society, was responsible for many successful monument projects and was an indefatigable worker in behalf of both the Confederate homes in Richmond.

The Truth About Electric Cooking

For large families where the average domestic help is employed and a large amount of cooking done, Electric Cooking will be found more expensive, and in most cases not advisable.

In small families, where no help is employed, and where nice equipment is desired, Electric cooking will be found many times more convenient, more certain in results and safer in operation—as well as reasonable in cost.

In every family a few utensils for early breakfast emergency and special uses—and for cheering up cold meals with a warm dish or two—is highly advisable from every standpoint, including that of economy.

CLERGYMEN DIFFER OVER EUGENICS.

At the time of the diocesan convention of the Episcopal Church at Charlottesville this spring, we commented at some length on the passage of a resolution which forcshadowed the prohibition of marriage by Episcopal clergymen of couples unless the groom presented a certificate of freedom from disease of immoral origin. The rectors of the three churches in this city were unanimous in declaring that they would make no attempt to enforce the resolution at present. In Richmond, however, thirteen Episcopal clergymen some weeks ago gave notice that after October first they would perform no marriage ceremony unless the prospective groom could present a certificate. Later, eight Episcopal ministers of the same city declared their intention of not joining in the eugenic marriage crusade promulgated by their church brethren. The eight opposing the new movement do so upon the grounds that it is "unsound morally ,offensive, inquisitorial and humiliating." As a substitute for eugenical marriages, corrective legislation directed at vices publicly tolerated, is earnestly recommended.

In a statement on the subject, the first reason presented by the eight dissenting ministers is the ineffectiveness of physical examination because of the baffling nature of certain social diseases. The next claim is mentioned as an "embargo on marriage," because of the prohibitive price for medical advice; which by competent physicians ranges in the neighborhood of $25. If there is to be decision and authority on this subject at all, it should without question, be the best obtainable. The working girl has as much, and more right to protection, than the woman of wealth, inasmuch as she has nothing to spend on consequences and is of the class that gives the world five, seven, nine sons and daughters, against the rich woman's one, two, possibly three

Going further, the non-conformists with the legally pure marriage idea, combat it with the assertion that there is too much one -sideness. Under the proposed resolutions only a certificate granted by the bride's physician will have any weight with the attending minister; thus casting reflection on the medical fraternity in general an dthe groom's medical adviser, in particular.

Say the eight ministers: "We clergymen feel that we have no right to assume and lay down a law of our making. Finally we believe the result of the resolution, if enacted, will be to throw marriages into the magistrate's court. The divorce evil today is considered a menace to the country. What the church is trying to do is to make people realize the sanctity of the marriage state. Hence the religious ceremony and a clergyman to officiate. Without this realization, marriage is but a civil contract, to be dissolved at the pleasure of the parties to it.

"And in evidence of this, a layman appointed by the Hustings Court of Richmond for the purpose has united in marriage in this city as a purely civil contract forty-seven couples since the first of last January."

The Roanoke World says:

The matter is of such importance, and both sides have presented their views so well, that it seems a good place to stop, look and listen before the legislature is called upon for the enactment of laws on the subject. To rush to state authority, because Pennsylvania has seen fit to pass drastic eugenic laws is not necessary. Better go slow, wait a bit and see what happens to that state. A wholesale Gretna Green or a Reno somewhere outside in a state where the laws are lax on the marriage question, is not wholesome or advisable, and greatly to be feared.

Like every question full of import, the one of eugenics should be given long, careful, weighty and authoritiative consideration.

—o—

The fact that her husband's refusal to change his shirt constituted cruel and inhuman conduct was alleged in a recent divorce case. And the poor man probably put it on clean for the 4th of July, too.

—o—

The rise in the price of gasoline makes mighty little difference to the average one of us who has to walk.

It seems like a man who serves grape juice to his guests ought to be able to live within his income.

It doesn't get those candidates the jobs to go to Richmond and look about in the capitol, but it is sort of soothing to their feelings to look forward to glory, even if it is unattainable.

Failure of City to Provide Armory Leads to Resignation of Officers.

Norfolk, Va., July 17.—Because of the failure of the Norfolk City Council to provide proper quarters for the organization and its equipment, valued at $100,000, the Norfolk Light Artillery Blues, one of the oldest and best known artillery companies in the South, will probably be asked to be mustered out of service. Captain Branch Johnson has tendered his resignation as commanding officer of the Blues to Adjutant General Sale, Lieutenant Myron Ethridge has done likewise, and it is said other resignations will follow.

The Norfolk Light Artillery Blues as a battery of light artillery was organized in 1828, and made an eviable record during the war between the States. It received new life in 1908, when Captain Johnson, a graduate of Virginia Military Institute was elected captain. Under his command and through the keen interest he has taken in the battery it has grown to be one of the best drilled and best known artillery organizations in the State, and has received complimentary notices of the inspecting officers. The personnel of the battery was said to be unsurpassed by any in the South.

LEAP TO ESCAPE FLAMES.

Lives of Fifty Young Women Endangered in Fire In New York.

New York, July 18—The lives of 50 young women were endangered yesterday when a fire, starting on the third floor of the factory building at 408 to 412 West Thirteenth street spread to the roof.

By making repeated trips in a freight elevator, John Raffetto carried down the majority of the employes. Many young women reached the street over the fire escape.

The young women, trapped on the sixth floor, jumped 12 feet into the arms of A. G. Armstrong, manager of the Munson Granule Company, occupying that floor, who was on the roof of a five story building adjoining. Armstrong and the young women were assisted to the street by Edward D. Slevinfi an ex-city fireman

Smoke was blown from the burning building into the offices and workrooms of P. F. Collier & Co. Three hundred young women were quieted by foremen.

Shortly after the arrival of the fire apparatus in response to the first alarm, Deputy Fire Chief Callaghy ordered a second alarm sounded. The deputy chief feared the flames would extend to the workrooms of the Munson Company, separated from 408 by a fireproof wall, where chemicals were stored.

Firemen kept the blaze from spreading.

VEGETABLES MORE ABUNDANT.

Beef Still Advances, Although Generally Lower at This Season.

There is a large supply of the best vegetabes. Now at the city market, an das prices will in many instances be seen to have dropped slightly, it is expected that sales will greatly increase.

While some of the vegetables have disappeared from the stalls, such as radishes, kale and spinach, new varieties are coming in rapidly so that the loss of a few varieties is not noticed.

Cantaloupes now sell for ten cents for large ones. Watermelons may be had for from 25 to 40 cents. Peaches are still high, selling at 65 cents per basket. New sweet potatoes are coming in, but prices are high at present and deaers will only buy on orders.

It will be found that prices of meats have advanced from one to two cents a pound over rates of several weeks ago.

During July and early August dealers always expect to see the price of meat drop a few cents, but this year the scarcity has become very noticeable and prices are in consequence higher.

Good beef, what may be termed the best cuts, are bringing from 20 to 3 cents a pound. Shoulders are still selling in many instances as low as 1 cents a pound.

The Prof is in Alexandria, Almost at Your Door.

The public statement of an Alexandria citizen is in itself strong proof for Alexandria people, but confirmation strengthens the evidence.

Here is an Alexandria citizen who testified years ago that Doan's Kidney Pills relieved weak kidneys and now states the result was permanent. Can any sufferer from kidney ills ask better proof? You can investigate. The case is right at home.

Mrs. Marth L. Byren, 209 Wilkes St., Alexandria, Va., says: "I can never fail to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills after all they have done for me, and you may continue using the endorsement I gave some years ago. I take this remedy every once in a while and it keeps me in good health. When I was suffering severely from backache, I first got Doan's Kidney Pills. My kidneys were badly disordered and I felt all run down. I was helped so much by the first box of Doan's Kidney Pills that I kept on taking them until I was well."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

PLITT TURNS INFORMER.

Stool Pigeon of Lieutenant Becker Tells Story of Graft.

New York, July 18.—Charles P. Plitt, Jr., "editor," tipster, press agent, stool pigeon and former confidential advertiser of the virtues and merits of Lieut. Charles Becker, who is awaiting death in Sing Sing for the murder of the gambler, Rosenthal, has tired of his berth in the Tombs and joined the ranks of police informers.

Plitt was held under $10,000 bail on a charge of perjury. He did not enjoy his plight and after trying in vain to sell his "story" to newspapers for $500 he turned it over to District Attorney Whitman for nothing and hopes that the prosecutor might be kind to him. District Attorney Whitman took the information for what it is worth and immediately began an investigation of each charge made by Plitt.

It was not a surprise to Mr. Whitman that the same old name of a prominent civilian in police headquarters should pop up in Plitt's confession. There were three names in the confession, two of them in headquarters and the third of a former member of the Strong Arm squad, of which Lieutenant Becker was the head. It was a story of graft from end to finish, it was said.

Most significant of all, probably, is the fact that Plitt, the man who was paid by Becker to advertise his fame as a raider of gambling houses, should after all these months turn against him.

The "story," is supposed ot tell of the collection and distribution of graft by Becker.

Train Kills Two Women.

Asheville, N. C., July 18.— Two women, about thirty an dthirty-five years old, whose bodies now await identification at a local undertaking establishment, were instantly killed last night about 10:40 by Southern Railway passenger train No. 102, due in Asheville from Morristown, Tenn., at 10:55. Reports state that the women, who were mangled almost beyond recognition were walking on the western track near Riverside Park, this city, when they crossed to the opposite track to avoid freight train coming ebhind. They were caught by the esat bound passenger train, which passed over them. The women were evidently of poor circumstances, and no clue as to their identity has yet been obtained.

Virginians For Position.

Washington, July 18.—President Wilson has been asked to consider two young Virginia lawyers as Assistatn Attorney-Generals of the United States. The young men are Peyton Cochran, of Staunton, and Allan B. Jones, of Newport News. Mr. Jones led the Wilson fight in Tidewater, Va., during the preconvention period and was one of the two instructed Wilson delegates to Baltimore. Mr. Cochran organized Staunton for Wilson and was one of the charter members of the first Wilson Presidential Club. Harry St. George Tucker, of Lexington, presented the name of Mr. Cochran to the President.

ASSAULTED BY BRUTE.

Woman Fought Terrible Battle Before Overcome.

Media, Pa., July 18.—When traversing a lonely stretch of road on the way to her place of employment at the Glen Mills paper mill Tuesday morning, Mrs. Anna Baker, 51 years old, was waylaid and beaten into a state of insensibility by a strange white man, who made his escape after the outrage and has not been apprehended. The county authorities aided by a posse of farmers, scoured the near-by country for hours in an effort to hunt down the ruffiian, but no trace of him could be found. It is understood that the unfortunate victim is in a serious condition as the result of her terrible experience.
